Karofe was born like any other child. Two days later, his mother was discharged with the healthy baby. At the age of one year, he looked like a child of three years of age. His mother showed him love by giving him real nutrition.

His father, Mr. Kashoma was a businessman. While his wife was a teacher at Obedo Junior School. During the school term, Karofe needed someone to stay with. The parents took the trouble to find a person that would do this job to their wishes.

Muzera, a twenty five year old lady, was their choice. She had trained at Safari Marie Domestic School and got a certificate as a baby care taker.

One Monday afternoon, Muzera wasn't able to prepare the baby's midday meal at the usual time.

There was hardly any water in the house. She couldn't prepare the usual Irish potato meal. The little water available could be used for preparing a simple maize flour porridge. This would also take a shorter time so she put it on fire. By this time, the boy was crying.

Strangely enough, Karofe fell asleep. This was chance for Muzera to collect some water from the well. She left the porridge on a slow burning stove.

During this season, water at the only well in Kiziba village was scarce. And at this time of the day, there was a long line of people and thirsty livestock. Muzera thought that since it was school time, the line would be shorter. She was wrong. When Karofe woke up he was hungrier than before. The tasty but hot porridge was on the stove. He crawled to help himself.

What followed was a very loud scream which attracted the neighbors. The boy's face was white with porridge. His legs and arms were all red.

By the time Muzera came back, the baby had been given first Aid. She then rang her mistress who arrived shortly with the school ambulance. At St. John's Turuguda Health Center, the boy received treatment. The health worker said that the patient would soon get well. The mother was thanked for being responsible. She had bought a mobile phone for Muzera. Two weeks later, Karofe left the hospital.

54. Read the poem below carefully and in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

I am very scared throughout the night,
For the bad news I have received,
That the examination time has changed,
From the last week of September to June.

I feel a lot of trouble as the dream goes on,
I don't see any time for enough revision,
That will make me remain at the top of the class,
Which is the only thing my parents have known.

Can I do what I've never tried?
To pass examinations in a bad way,
My friend tells me to try cheating in examination
But, who will accept my results?

"Wake up my son," I hear the voice,
I open my eyes with difficulty,
"It was a bad dream",
I say quietly to myself Orom Tom.
