DRAWING OR PAINTING FROM STILL-LIFE

Paper 1

2½ hours

INSTRUCTIONS;

This paper is for the use by the supervisor only, in consultation with the Art teacher. Attention is directed to the syllabus and to the standing instructions as given in the subject syllabus.

Note:

Candidates must be instructed that ruling by any means what so ever is forbidden except when marking off space for name, index number and centre number.

The Art Teacher should supply the candidate with cards measuring 5cm wide by 12cm long with which the candidates will demarcate the area in the top right hand corner of the front surface of the paper. In this area, the candidate's name, centre number and index number, in that order must be written clearly. This area must not be painted.

The setters of the groups of objects in this paper must interpret the sides mentioned in the questions set below (ie. left or right) according to the position of the candidates facing the objects.

The centre supervisor should ensure that the teacher in charge of preparing specimens do not substitute specimens specified in the early instructions with other specimens of their choice, otherwise the candidates work will be considered irrelevant and hence will not be marked or graded.

N.B:

Candidates should be instructed that ruling what so ever is forbidden.

ALTERNATIVE A

In front of the students, on a low platform place a lantern with its glass open (coming out) towards the left hand side.

Slightly behind the lantern, on the right hand side, place a three litre jerry can at $\frac{3}{4}$ view to candidates. In between the lantern and jerry can, drop a match box open with its matches clearly seen by candidates. Place a funnel in the lantern in a fueling position.

ALTERNATIVE B

On the floor, place a local papyrus mat, slightly behind the mat but on the left hand side, place a charcoal stove with a sauce pan on it (The charcoal stove should not sit on the mat).

On the mat, next to the charcoal stove, place two cups, one slightly behind the other. In the middle of the mat, place another plastic cup in front of the two cups but slightly lying. On the right hand side place a knife. Its handle must rest on the mat (to lie horizontally on its sides). Place a king size loaf of bread with some slices falling next to the two cups on the mat. (The lying cup should be between the bread and the two cups)
