MONICA'S VISIT TO KARAMOJA.

Monica, a sixteen year old girl in S.4 at Kampala Trinity College, had an aunt working in Moroto, Karamoja. After her 'O' level examinations, Monica went to Karamoja to spend her holiday with her aunt, and to have an experience of what she had studied in Geography and History about the region.

Her aunt was very happy to see her. She exclaimed with pleasure and embraced her, "Oh Monica, nice to see you! How are you? Did you like the journey?"

"Yes, Auntie, I liked it. Uncle Stephen was driving very carefully, especially on the bumpy roads."

"Were there only the two of you in the car?" "No, Auntie. Three of us. We picked up a lady from Tororo. She and uncle talked and laughed all the way."

Who was she? Had you seen her before? No, Auntie. We found her near Rock Hotel. She stopped us and uncle asked me whether we should give her a lift. Naturally, I said yes.

What was she like? Her aunt asked. She was tall and brown. She told us she was a doctor. I admired her.

"Did you?" "Yes, I did. I must become a doctor, too!"

For the next few weeks Monica spent her time assisting her aunt with the house duties. Her aunt worked at Kangole Hospital as a midwife, and would leave the house for work at 8:00 am and return at 5:00pm. She was quite happy with what her niece was doing in house. Monica, too, was happy to be in Karamoja for the first time in her life.
