Paper 3
3 Hours 30 Minutes

INSTRUCTIONS

This paper is for the use by the supervisor only, in consultation with the Art teacher.

The model should pose for 20 minutes and rest for 5 minutes at intervals. The tone of the background to the set model may be included if so desired. In B candidates should sit close to the model than in A.

Candidates should be instructed that if the work is painted, the relevant part of the background must be included. When working, candidate should bear in mind the positioning and the size of the figure on the space of the paper provided.

ALTERNATIVE A

A boy of a round 16 years old sits on a chair and leans on its back, while tilting the head facing downwards as if in deep thought. The buttons of his shirt are opened up to the waist to clearly reveal the stomach. His right leg is raised up to rest on the left thigh to reveal the bottom of the right foot. The left leg rest on the floor in its normal position. Both hands hold criss-crossed on the knee of the right leg., with fingers visible to the candidates.

ALTERNATIVE B
